1. The following is the text of an SI letter received in LCDrink from Pine on 4 January. The letter was dated 25 November. It was numbered 5, which indicates that we have not received letters number 3 and 4.

2. "Letter #5, five. Begin. The four of us are well. We could not do the work because of winter and lack of food. Then we were obliged for three winter months to depart from the mountains of KMWashoeland. For the three winter months we are secure in the house of Identity (1) in Identity (2). We are making preparations so that in the coming spring we will return and begin our work. We have secured the radio in the mountains of KMWashoeland. Send us a person to contact us for a conference. We beg of you to notify us by the post address we have given you in TPReachland. We are living here on our own expense. Send us a parcel or money. Little Pine."
